OUR VISION

Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions mission is to influence the building and sustaining of strong families and strong generational heritages by promoting a biblical worldview and a God first lifestyle. All of the pain, grief, sorrow and sin in the world is the result of just one wrong decision. Every day we make hundreds of decisions that determine what we say and do. CFADD seeks to educate the public about the benefits and consequences of decisions that affect them and their loved ones, and to provide resources, strategies, and principles that would aid them in making good sound decisions. For no good action can be taken unless it is preceded by a good decision, because each good decision is an investment in a great future.

Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions strives:

- To enhance the desirability of marriage and family life
- To promote abstinence before marriage and monogamy
- To combat the misinformation and ignorance that effects our families
- To advocate that children have dedicated mothers and fathers to protect, nurture and guide their development toward their adulthood
- To promote equality and justice for all babies conceived in the womb
- To combat all cultural ideologies and/or behavior that disrupts the nuclear family
- To reduce media violence against the family

Only by restoring the biblical foundations of the home, can the church and society flourish. Our journey together to restore the foundations of the families and repair the breaches has just begun. Through CFADD, you will become a part of the revival of biblical family values. Together we will see the heart of the fathers turn to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers and an end to the curse of fatherlessness in the Earth (Malachi 4:6).

APOSTLE TOMMY E. QUICK

Senior Pastor, Founder of
The Promised Land Christian Discipleship Center and Christian Families Against Destructive Decisions (CFADD)

THE VISIONARY BUILDER

Apostle Tommy E. Quick stands as a towering pillar of faith and vision. For nearly five decades, he has not merely preached the Gospel but has manifested it into tangible sanctuaries of hope, building three churches that serve as guiding light in the Carolinas. What distinguishes him is not just his longevity in ministry but his relentless innovation and adaptability.

The Promised Land Christian Discipleship Center represents more than brick and mortar; it embodies his unwavering commitment to spiritual excellence. As a former member of COGIC, he assisted in building of NC3rd serving in multiple leadership roles simultaneously—Chief of Staff, Superintendent, Chairman of Ordination Committee demonstrating exceptional administrative acumen rarely seen in spiritual leaders.

His greatest strength lies in his holistic vision for community transformation. While others talk about change, he creates it:

- He saw beyond spiritual needs to physical ones, developing the 47-home Trinity Gates subdivision.
- He recognized educational gaps and established Legacy Christian School.
- He identified family deterioration as a crisis and launched CFADD as a nationwide solution.

Apostle Tommy E. Quick humanitarian awards merely formalize what our community already knows—his impact transcends denominational boundaries. The remarkable stability of his 40-year marriage to Valerie and his flourishing multi-generational family serve as living testimony to the principles he advocates.

His motto reveals everything about his extraordinary dedication:

"I found my life in the church and now the church has become my life."

This singular focus, this unwavering devotion, sets him apart in an era of divided attention. He doesn't just talk about God—first living—he exemplifies it with every breath.

THE COMPASSIONATE SHEPHERD

Apostle Tommy E. Quick has walked a path few could navigate with such grace. For 49 years, he has poured himself into ministry, weathering the storms that come withstanding firmly for biblical truth in an increasingly secular world. The mention "suffered persecution and prosecution for his unwavering faith" speaks volumes about the price he has paid for his convictions.

His journey began decades ago, and through patience and persistence, he has cultivated not just church buildings but human souls. Each of the three churches Apostle Quick pioneered represents countless late nights, challenging conversations, and moments of divine intervention that only he could fully remember

The creation of CFADD in 2020 came during what was described as "the greatest trial of my life"—a period of physical and social isolation. Yet even in this darkness, he found purpose and direction, transforming personal pain into collective healing for families across the nation. This speaks to his remarkable resilience:

- When facing obstacles, he sees opportunities for ministry.
- When confronting societal problems, he builds systematic solutions.
- When experiencing isolation, he creates community.

Apostle Quick's dedication to family isn't merely professional—it's deeply personal. The home he has built with Valerie over 40 years, nurturing five children who've blessed him with grandchildren and great-grandchildren, reflects quiet evenings of counsel, mornings of prayer, and years of consistent example-setting.

The phrase "I found my life in the church and now the church has become my life" reveals the beautiful surrender that has characterized his journey. Apostle Quick has given himself fully to his calling, and in that giving, has discovered the paradoxical fullness that comes only through selfless service. His life testifies that true fulfillment isn't found in taking but in offering yourself completely to what matters most.

LETTER FROM OUR FOUNDER

Dear CFADD Conference Attendees,

Welcome to the 2025 CFADD National Conference!

It is with great joy, honor, and expectation that I welcome you to this sacred gathering under the powerful and prophetic theme: “Rebuilding the Family, Restoring the Nation.” Your presence here is not only appreciated—it is a divine appointment. Each one of you has been called to stand in this hour as a restorer of the breach and a builder of the foundation.

Our nation is facing a crisis of identity, morality, and stability—not because of politics or economics alone, but because the institution of the family has been weakened, neglected, and, in many cases, redefined. But we have gathered in faith, believing that the tide can turn, and the future can be reformed when the family is rebuilt on the solid rock of God's Word.

Over the next few days, you will hear from powerful speakers, engage with transformative workshops, and witness the fruit of a growing movement committed to generational healing and biblical truth. This is more than a conference—it is a commissioning. I pray that your heart will be stirred, your vision renewed, and your assignment confirmed.

I thank every pastor, ambassador, family champion, ministry leader, and partner who has traveled—sometimes across states or across the street—to be a part of what God is doing here. Your sacrifice is not unnoticed, and your faith is not in vain. Let this gathering strengthen your hands, sharpen your voice, and reignite your fire to return to your communities as agents of family restoration and national renewal. May we leave here not just inspired, but aligned, equipped, and unified for the work ahead.

On behalf of CFADD and our entire leadership team, I welcome you in the name of the Lord and with the full weight of our mission: to influence the building and sustaining of strong families and generational heritage through a God-first lifestyle and a biblical worldview.

Let us rise together—for family, for faith, for the future.

In Christ's service and with heartfelt gratitude,

Apostle Tommy E. Quick

Call to Action

"Everything you need to build a life is here in CFADD!!! My marriage is stronger, my hope is high, my home is sound, and we are thriving!!! I love the workshops, the messages, the warnings, and the abundance of support we have via CFADD! God FIRST, Family STRONG!!!!!"

- Tae'lor S.

"It ran in the family until it ran into me!" - Alexis K.

"199 men has taught me about the barriers that we as men face and how to overcome them. I also love how through 199 men I am gaining skills that is allowing me to be a better husband and understanding of how I am supposed to treat my wife as the weaker vessel."

- Joshua G.

"Growing up in a single-parent household, I was taught to be independent and not rely on a man. Through the ministry's workshops and guidance, I learned the importance of staying emotionally and relationally connected in my marriage and how embracing vulnerability can strengthen both my marriage and family." - Juneatta O.

"When my wife and I first came the Promised Land, a CFADD church, we were not married, struggling with drug addiction, homelessness, and facing legal issues. My wife also lost custody of her two children from a previous marriage and was denied visitation rights. Today, we have experienced deliverance and built a new life together. We have a daughter of our own, and my wife has been reunited with her children." - Austin H.

"Not too long ago I was broken and living a life of sin with no remorse. One day I was so tired of feeling beat down and not having anyone to talk to so I cried to God. He heard me and not long after he sent me a God fearing man that knew exactly what I needed and guided me back to church to put my life back on track... I learned so much and I am still blown away by God's grace and divine timing. Looking back I'm so thankful for the good and the bad because if I didn't reach my lowest I might not have made it to where I'm at right now! Thank you Sean for being a blessing and mostly thank you GOD for picking me back up!" - Scarlett S.

LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR CONFERENCE TRACKS

REBUILDING THE FAMILY

Rebuilding the Family theme is intended to equip families to build strong, healthy homes that are spiritually grounded, emotionally whole, and practically prepared for longterm success.

The Rebuilding the Family track provides a clear, hopeful framework for how to flourish at home. By strengthening the internal structure of the family, participants will not only find personal renewal but also prepare to leave a lasting impact on their children and community. This track has the purpose to family life—so each home becomes a place of stability, love, and legacy.

RESTORING THE NATION

Restoring the Nation theme is intended to highlight how the strength of a nation begins with the health of its families. It explores the vital connection between strong households and societal transformation, offering sessions on cultural engagement, church and civic leadership, education reform, and standing for life and truth in a shifting world.

The Restoring the Nation track empowers attendees to see their homes not just as places of refuge, but as platforms for restoration. It calls families, churches, and individuals to rise as reformers—ready to shape the next generation, influence public life, and rebuild a society grounded in truth, compassion, and purpose.
